better schools...

... better communities

FOREWORD

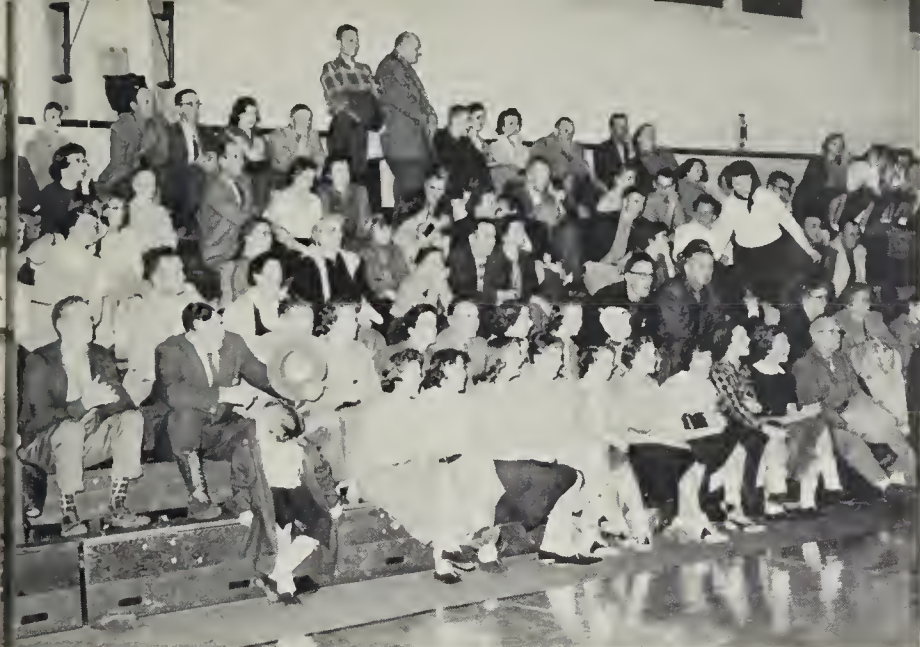

This year in presenting the 1959 edition of the RIPARIAN we have endeavored to stress our theme, "Better Schools Make Better Communities." In doing this, we acknowledge with profound appreciation the support that the civic and social clubs, the business firms and the churches have given us. By working in unison and close harmony with school and community, we have gained experience and knowledge, and we have molded our characters.

In past years, events relative to our theme have been pinpointed through other annuals, and it seems to be the constant aim of annual staffers to place emphasis on the school of today and the future of our community as we have.

Various awards are given to outstanding and deserving students. Some of the honors which stimulate the students' interests are the D-A-R Best Citizen Award, the Woodman of the World Award, the most outstanding girl and boy in the senior class, and college scholarships. The homecoming queen and her court, officers for each class and organization, cheerleaders, band members, and majorettes are esteemed positions which encourage students to serve mankind, their school, community and church in a wise manner.

Each undertaking has been accomplished through the untiring efforts, faith, time, patience and generosity of our school and community.

Helen Harris, Editor
Brenda Hyde, Assistant Editor

"Better education makes a better democracy."

"Students of today make the future of tomorrow."

IN TRIBUTE TO:

Our Parents

As we look back over our progress throughout high school, we pause to pay tribute to our parents who have taken an active part in our life at G. C. H. S. Although they lead a busy life at home, their energy and interest in our school are endless. They have been the guiding power behind the progress we have made. Each success has been inspired by them, and each accomplishment has been endowed by them.

Our class mothers, Mrs. R. A. Allen, Mrs. H. G. Roach, Mrs. R. C. Miller, Mrs. G. A. Hyde, Mrs. H. T. Klugel, Mrs. J. H. Southall, Mrs. Woodard Lucas, Mrs. W. E. Short, and Mrs. W. R. Cato, have served us in many ways. Helping at our Junior Minstrel, serving at our Junior-Senior Banquet, conferring with our teachers, buying Christmas cards, helping prepare chicken muddles, and patiently waiting for students after school are only a few of the many ways in which they have helped to provide us with many hours of enjoyment.

We, the Class of 1959, proudly dedicate this edition of The Riparian to our parents in appreciation for their sincere service.

The last-minute-rush before the Minstrel is exciting.

Our 1958-59 Classmothers pose under protest.

ADMINISTRATION

OUR SCHOOL BOARD

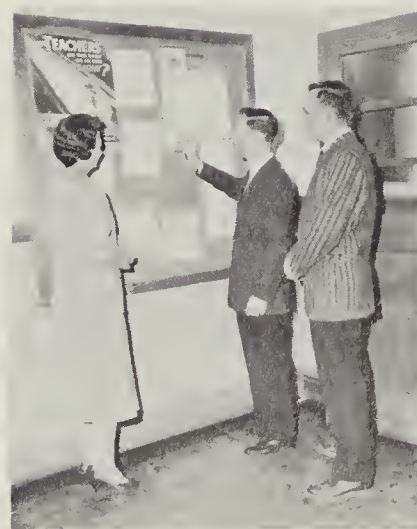

Forming the policies and directing the program of our school, the local school board members are always interested in the progress of our school. Mr. Cary P. Flythe, Chairman, Mr. V. J. Kreienbaum, Mr. Adolphus Slate, and Mr. E. R. Riedel strive to keep up the standards of education. They meet the second Tuesday of each month in Mr. Riedel's office.

FACULTY AROUND SCHOOL

Each morning before classes begin the faculty members gather in the principal's office to receive their instructions for the day. On the teacher's bulletin board they find much important data. Here Mr. Wright, Principal, converses with the teachers and endeavors to solve any problem they may have. At the right Mr. Wright confers with Mrs. Reid and Mr. Winslow.

Mr. A. G. Wright, Principal

In the seven years that Mr. A. G. Wright has served as our principal, he has been a great asset to our school and has faithfully executed his duties in an efficient and understanding manner. He has done much to inspire us to keep pace with the strides in curriculum building and student activities. We express our deepest gratitude to Mr. Wright for the great contribution he has made to our school and community through his years of leadership at Greenville County High School.

Our secretary, Mrs. Louise Stainback, is also an asset to our school. She assists the principal, faculty, and students in many ways. She is an efficient secretary and has served us in a most amiable manner. Our sincere thanks go to Mrs. Stainback for her part in making our school life successful.

Mrs. Louise Stainback, Secretary

Mr. E. R. Riedel, Superintendent of Schools

Mr. E. R. Riedel, guiding the schools of Greenville County on the path of education, is an able counselor and efficient administrator. He makes a constant effort to improve the facilities and raise the standards of our school system and wisely solves important problems. With the aid of his dependable secretary, Miss Nell Jean, he keeps our school functioning properly.

SALUTE TO THE FACULTY

No record of our school years would be complete without an expression of our feelings toward the faculty whose patience, friendliness, sincerity, and devotion have contributed much to our activities. When we go out into the world, we shall not have much difficulty, for we have been trained by extremely well qualified instructors.

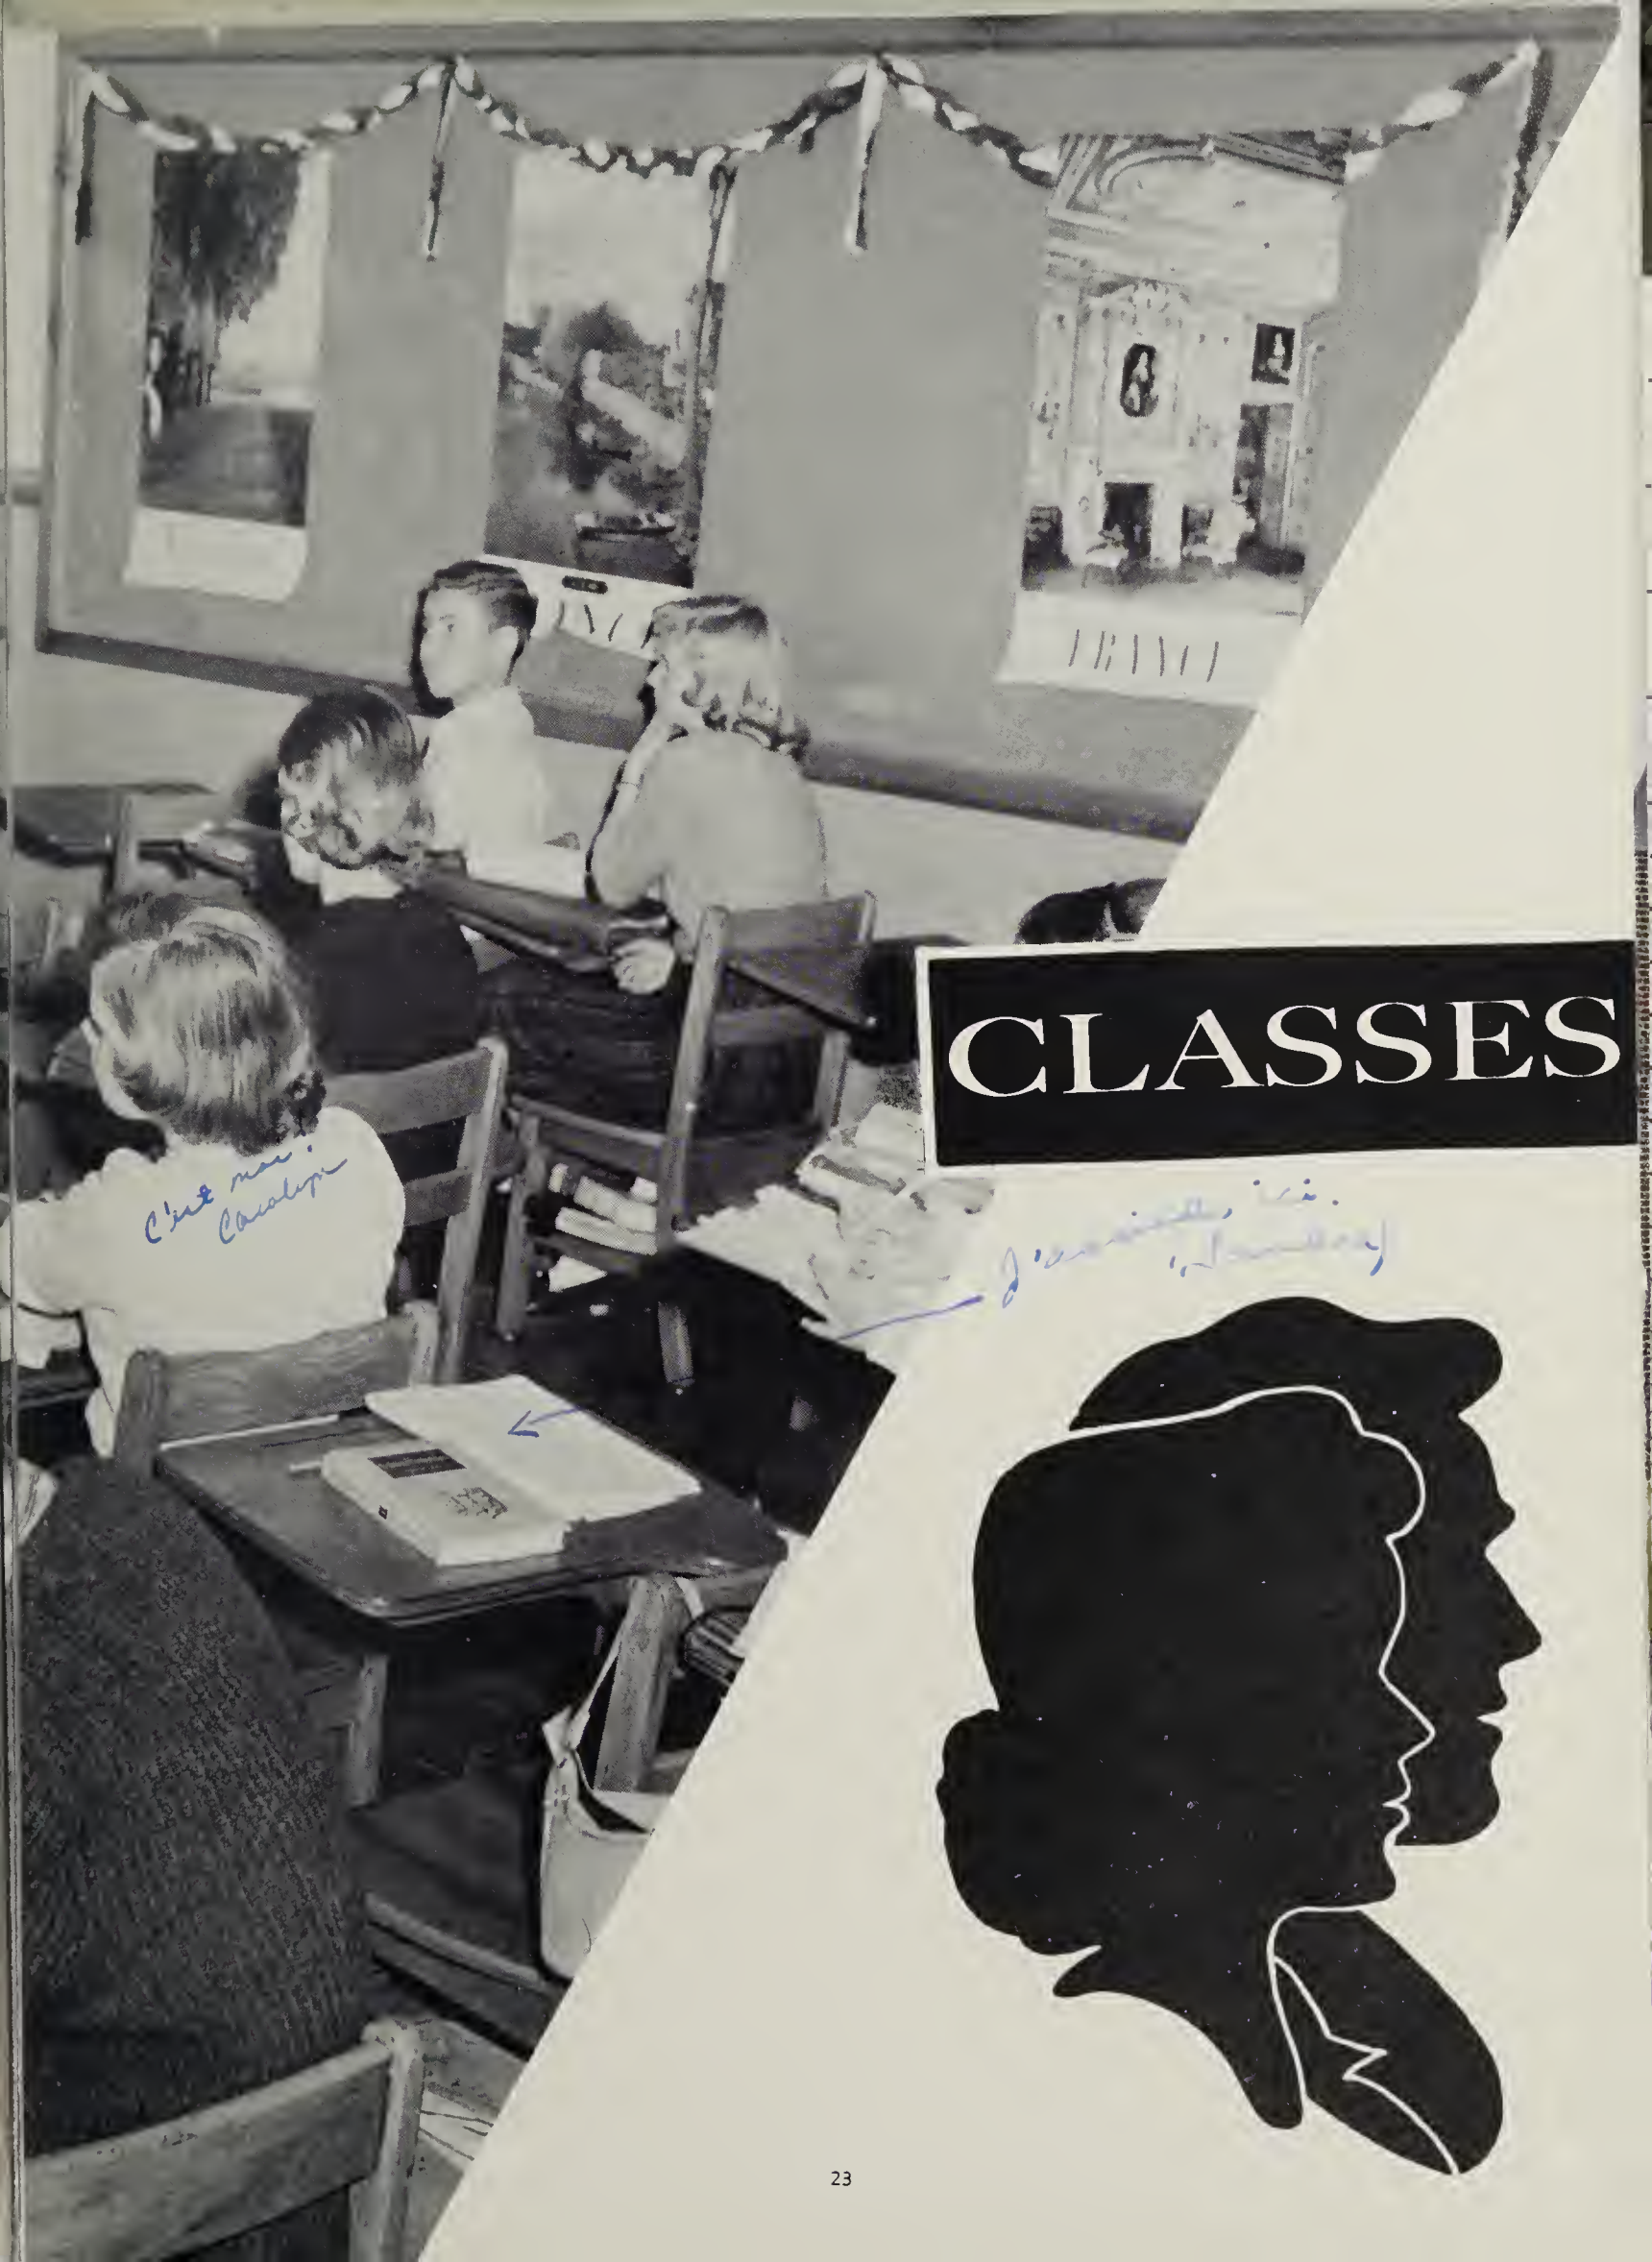

We salute you, faculty, for your excellent guidance, for your faithfulness and devotion to your task, and for your untiring efforts in guiding us. We deeply appreciate your time, your patience, and your capability.

Thank you,

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We, the Senior Class of 1959, glance back upon all the things accomplished and look towards our future goals with success.

In our Freshman Year, we were led by President Bob Wayne Mitchell. The main highlights of this year were our assembly program, "Mickey Mouse", and the annual picnic at the end of the year.

Our Sophomore Year was marked with such successes as the combined Freshman and Sophomore dance and again the picnic at the end of the year. Under the leadership of our President, Billy Gill, we were helped through a year of huge success.

In our Junior Year we were led by a fine slate of officers; President, Jimmy Vincent; Vice-President, Maxie Moore; Secretary, Emily Short; Treasurer, Reuben Allen; Reporter, Randi Keedwell; and Photographer, Terry Tomlinson. For each student this year was filled with excitement because of our Minstrel in the fall, and our Junior and Senior Prom, "Paradise of the Deep" in the spring. Buddy Cato was elected Vice-President of the S.C.A. for the year. Although this was a year of work, we could see and remember the memories we had established during the year.

Our Senior Year has been our best and the most unforgettable year. To lead us again was Jimmy Vincent, our President, along with Buddy Cato, Vice-President; Gayle Dickens, Secretary; Brenda Hyde, Corresponding Secretary; Alvin Allen, Treasurer; and Janice Roach, Reporter.

In the fall, Brenda Hyde was elected as Homecoming Queen, and Randi Keedwell as Maid of Honor. Janice Roach and Helen Harris were our Senior Representatives.

The S. C. A. got off to a fine start under the leadership of Buddy Cato, President; Brenda Hyde, Recording Secretary; Helen Harris, Corresponding Secretary; and Reuben Allen, Treasurer.

During October our Class journeyed to Brunswick High School for College Day to discuss our future plans with college representatives.

Due to a bad snow storm we were dismissed from school a week early for Christmas vacation.

In January we found that we had set a record. We were the first senior class to have ever had everyone passing at mid-term.

Then came spring and the long-awaited trip to New York was made after many months of working, planning, and hoping. We all marveled at the great sights that we had heard and read so much about.

When the annual arrived, much praise and appreciation was given to Helen Harris, Editor; Brenda Hyde, Assistant Editor; Harry Klugel, Business Manager; Emily Short, Assistant Business Manager; Jackie Inge, Feature Editor; Janice Roach, Assistant Feature Editor; Alvin Allen, Class Editor; Ronnie Braswell, Assistant Class Editor; Merle Stevens, Art Editor; Emily Sodergren, Girls' Sports Editor; Bill Tillar, Boys' Sports Editor; Randi Keedwell, Girls' Assistant Sports Editor; Reuben Allen, Assistant Boys' Editor; Daphney Pearson, Head Typist; Mavis Williams, Buddy Allen, JoAnn Wright, Gayle Dickens, Typists; and Eloise Conwell, Copy Editor.

As our school year, 1959, drew to a close we were paid a tribute by the school with the annual Senior Day and for their enjoyment we presented our program that afternoon. The Juniors honored us with a Junior-Senior Prom that we will hold in our memories forever. Graduation ended a year of honors, successes, and events for the Class of '59.

As you can easily see, the high school years of this Class of '59 were very exciting and passed quickly. We had failures, as well as successes, but at graduation time we were ready to face the challenges of the world. At the end of the path of high school days, we gained a helping hand so vital to success, a High School Education.

HIGH SCHOOL DAYS

We have come a long way
Along the road of life,
Some of the way was happy
Some was filled with strife.

High School days were happy days,
As we walked the last long mile,
We looked back over years gone by
Fond memories brought a smile.

There were so many things to do
Before graduation day,
Our work came first, after that
We had some time for play.

Junior-Senior Banquet and Dance
The highlight of the year,
When the Juniors worked so hard
To bring to us this cheer.

We really looked forward to
Our trip to New York City
For those who didn't make the grade
It was such a shame and pity.

The Senior Play was always fun
Brought out dramatic talent
The leading lady was always sweet
The hero always gallant.

Then came the Senior Picnic,
We could hardly wait,
The Juniors were so nice to us
We were glad to reciprocate.

All to soon it was over
We went our separate ways.
Wherever we went, whatever we did
We remembered our High School days.
Vincent

IN MEMORY OF: GEORGE FRANCIS DUNCAN

In recording our school memories we pause to pay tribute to George Duncan who was an active member of the Class of 1959 until his death on January 27, 1958. Those who taught him, those who studied with him, and those who were his friends can readily attest to his friendliness, his co-operation, his scholastic ability, and his extra-curricular activities.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Our class officers are Earl Taylor, President; Earl Stanley, Vice-President; Kathy Massey, Secretary; Judy Owens, Treasurer; Bobby Harrison, Reporter.

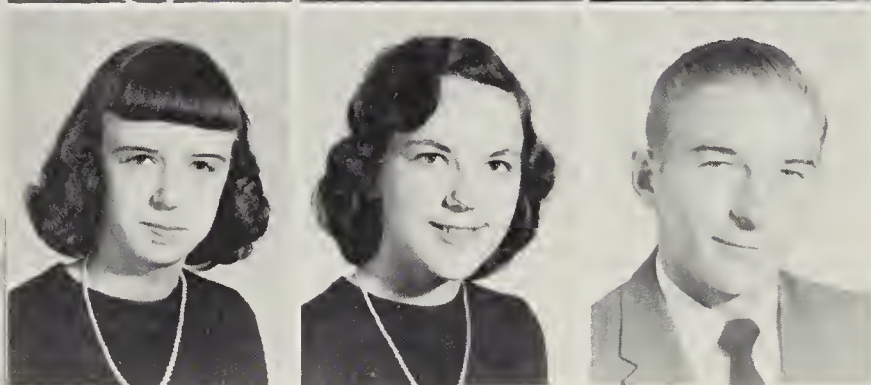

The junior class of 1959 is looking back on the past few years and looking forward to the future. As an eighth grade they had one hundred members; now they have ninety-four. Nevertheless, they have been successful in their many projects in the past years.

This year they worked very hard on the Junior Minstrel. They thoroughly enjoyed presenting the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom to the seniors.

They sincerely hope that their senior year will be as memorable and successful as their other high-school years have been.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

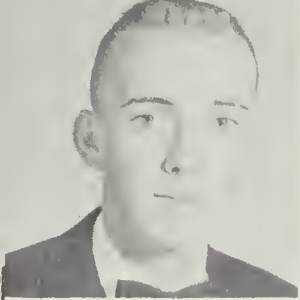

This year, under the leadership of Jeanne Riggan, Vice President; Walter Jones, President; Shirley Keedwell, Secretary; Butler Barrett, Reporter; Patsy Safelle, Treasurer; and Jerry Callahan, Photographer, we have made greater strides toward our goal, a high school diploma.

Looking back, we, the Sophomore Class of '59, have many wonderful memories of the past two years of high school.

While in the Eighth Grade we held our annual reception for the parents, and we presented the reception program to the student body in our Eighth Grade assembly.

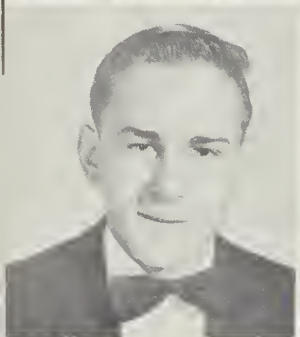

Our Freshman Year was marked by such memorable successes as our Winter Wonderland Dance and a picnic at the end of the year.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

The Freshman Class of 1958-59 was led by the following: Vice President, Kay Vincent; President, Roger Collier; Secretary, Brenda Goodwyn; Treasurer, Ann Carter Faison; Photographer, Danny Blankenship; and Reporter, Judy Bowen.

The first event of our Freshman year was the Freshman Assembly which was held on November twenty first and consisted of poetry, music and scenes to illustrate the poems.

Next we had our Freshman-Sophomore dance which was enjoyed by all who attended.

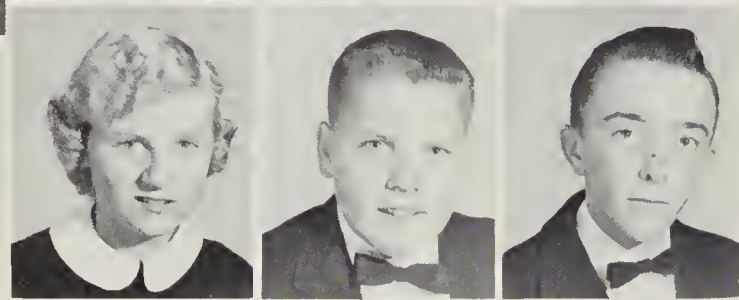

To finish out another year together we had a picnic at Slagles Lake. Looking back over the year we realize this was a wonderful way to begin our High School lives.

ENTS

ORGANIZATIONS

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

The outstanding seniors are Randi Keedwell, Al Harris, Emily Short, Harry Klugel, Eloise Conwell, Alvin Allen, Brenda Hyde, Buddy Cato, Helen Harris, Jimmy Vincent, Janice Roach, Bill Tillar, Emily Sodergren, and Reuben Allen.

The Outstanding Seniors were chosen by their fellow class members for their scholastic, leadership, and athletic abilities, and their activities in the various clubs of the school.

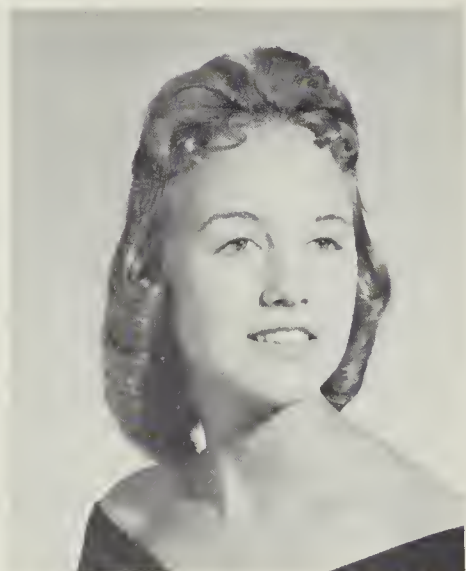

JUNIOR MARSHALS

Honoring juniors with the highest scholastic records was first introduced with the graduating class of 1958. The six with the highest averages served as commencement marshals and participated in the various graduating exercises. Those selected were Randi Keedwell, Emily Short, Jacqueline Inge, Eloise Conwell, Janice Roach, and Harry Klugel.

With an ever increasing emphasis on scholarship, this innovation was created with the expectation of instilling within the underclassmen a desire to attain the very best during their high school career.

The Girls' and Boys' State Delegates were Ronnie Braswell, Harry Klugel, Buddy Cato, Brenda Hyde, Helen Harris, and Janice Roach. While at Girls' and Boys' State, Buddy Cato served as floor leader of the Senate, Ronnie Braswell was city judge, and Harry Klugel was also a city officer. Janice Roach was a delegate to the House of Representatives, Brenda Hyde sang in the Glee Club, and Helen Harris was a delegate to the Federalist Convention.

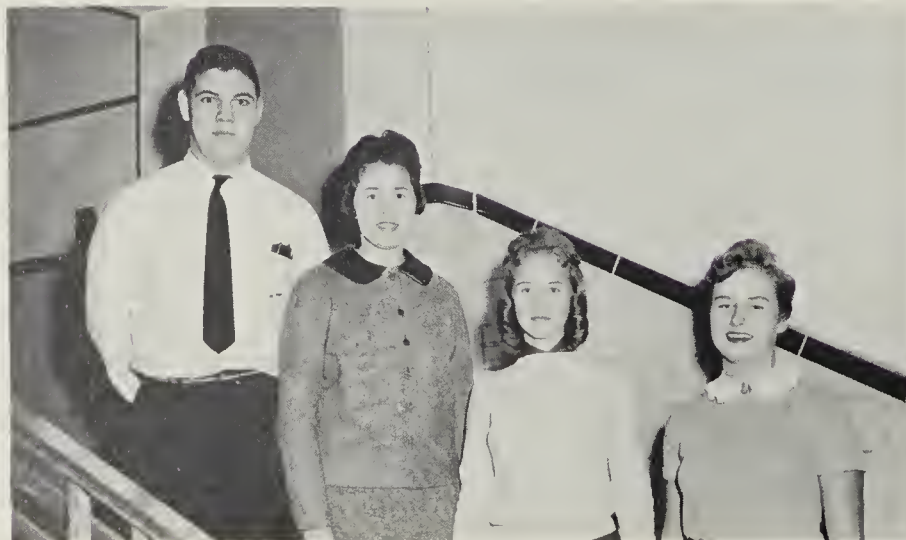

VALEDICTORIAN

Randi Keedwell is valedictorian because of her scholastic achievements. She has maintained an "A" average throughout her high school career.

SALUTATORIAN

Emily Short has the next highest scholastic abilities. She has maintained an "A" and "B" average throughout her high school career.

The delegates to the SIPA convention held last spring were Harry Klugel, Brenda Hyde, Randi Keedwell, and Helen Harris. Randi represented the Green and Gold, and the other delegates represented the Annual Staff. At SIPA they learned many ways to improve our school publications.

HONORED

Many students in the school have enjoyed attending district club meetings, and contest of the different organizations throughout the year. The district club officers and contest winners are Katha Massey, Winner of Spelling Contest; Betty Lou Justice, Deca State Secretary; Pattie Wood, Winner of Public Speaking Contest; Emily Short, Chaplain of House at MGA; Peggy Thorpe, FHA Federation President; Mary Lee Howard, Hi-Y District Vice-president.

Helen Harris and Harry Klugel are chairmen of the District Y. I. V. An organization for youth which was an outcome of Girls and Boys State.

The delegates to the Hi-Y Congress at Blue Ridge, N. C. during the past summer were Evelyn King, Kitty Hoy, Kay Wilson, and Carolyn Mitchell. Delegates from Hi-Y's and Tri-Hi-Y's in nine states attended this Congress in order to learn ways to make their clubs better.

GOLD

Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Gobble, Green and Gold sponsors, discuss the printing of the November issue of the paper.

Randi Keedwell and Jacqueline Inge, Business Managers, count money taken in for ads for the next issue of the Green and Gold.

Canvassing the town for ads, endless writing, preparing dummies, typing, proofreading, printing, selling copies--all these make our school paper.

The purpose of the Green and Gold Staff is to issue monthly a newspaper containing news and events concerning student activities. It keeps the students informed as to what is going on around school, and in turn, give the staff an opportunity to develop their writing ability.

Emily Short, Editor of the school newspaper, has a meeting of the staff to prepare to print a paper.

The program committee places the song books on the bleachers before an assembly.

The finance committee worked hard in the refreshment stand at football games.

The publicity committee works hard on the bulletin boards.

S.C.A. LEADS

Our Student Council, the main governing body of our school, is composed of representatives elected from each homeroom, with officers elected by the entire student body.

The S. C. A. sets up rules and a constitution by which our school can be efficiently operated. Promoting good scholarship and encouraging leadership among the students are two of its purposes.

Some of the main functions of the S. C. A. are having charge of the concession stand at football games, maintaining the health room, improving the point system, striving for honesty with the honor code, having charge of our flag, being responsible for all assembly programs, and providing schedules for decorative bulletin boards for our school.

THE WAY

The citizenship committee works on making the honor system better and revising the handbook.

Buddy Cato, Standing, presides over an S.C.A. meeting. Seated are Mr. Wright, sponsor, Helen Harris, corresponding secretary; Earl Taylor, vice-president; Brenda Hyde, recording secretary; Reuben Allen, treasurer; Mrs. Overbey, sponsor. The homeroom representatives are Betty Lou Justice, Janice Roach, Bill Tillar; Harry Klugel, Carolyn Mitchell, Judy Owens, Dianne Newsome, Bobby Harrison, Warren Rawlings, Rus Cato, JoAnn Brett, Shirley Harrison, Beverly Lucy, Paul Dianis, Roger Collins, Ann Faison, Bill Thompson, Linda Conner, Patsy Saffelle, Shirley Keedwell, Freddie Grant, Shirley Yeattes, Jean Hobbs, Edward Wood, Mike Taylor, Melvin Prince, Buddy Johnson, Mary Ellen Brett, and Judy Bradley.

The executive council meets to discuss a project the S. C. A. could have for the year.

The health and welfare committee takes care of the infirmary and helps new students who come to the school.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization of pupils studying homemaking. It offers opportunities for the future development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

Some of the activities of the F. H. A. during the year were holding a joint F. H. A.-F. F. A. Banquet at which they presented a program to inform others of F. H. A. purposes and accomplishments; inviting parents to Formal Initiation; inviting parents to attend Federation and Chapter meetings with Chapter members; remembering older citizens and shut-ins in the community with cards, gifts, and visits; sponsoring a "Daddy Date" night; choosing an F. F. A. Sweetheart; remembering the faculty members with presents and by wishing them a happy birthday over the intercom; and encouraging the study of brand names and labels. Their goal for this year was to develop wise teen-age consumers.

The F. H. A. sponsors group projects, local, state, and national in scope. Because of the effort of the Future Homemakers of America, homes of tomorrow will certainly be better places in which to live.

BETA

The Beta Club is an honor organization of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, who maintain at least a "B" average in their work. It is considered a great honor to obtain membership in this club, and it should be the goal of every student who enters Greenville County High School, making him strive for higher ideals.

The purpose of this organization is to promote the ideals of honesty, service and leadership among the high school students of America; to reward meritorious achievement; and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school.

Their main project for this year was to purchase curtains for the cafeteria.

Sponsor, Mr. William Overbey.

The Future Farmers of America is an organization composed of students studying vocational agriculture in high school.

"Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve" is their motto. The primary aim of this organization is to develop agricultural leadership, co-operation, and citizenship and to strengthen the confidence of farm boys and young men in themselves and their work.

There are four degrees of membership, which are awarded according to the accomplishment of each member. The program of work, based on the needs of the community and the individuals, is set up annually by the Chapter.

The F. F. A. and the F. H. A. jointly own and operate a well-organized camp at Mogart's Beach, which combines recreational and health practices with leadership activities.

Dick Collins is Captain of the safety patrol. Dick has been on the patrol for three years. Mr. Winslow is the sponsor.

The Safety Patrol, organized for the welfare of all school students, seeks to promote safety on the buses and streets. By following the advice of the patrolmen, students not only insure their own safety, but also set a good example for safety among the younger students. The patrol needs the co-operation of each student in order to meet its aim. Mr. Burwell Winslow is the sponsor of this organization.

The Monogram Club is composed of boys and girls who have earned varsity letters for participation in inter-scholastic sports.

The club promotes clean sportsmanship and greater school spirit.

The club assisted the city league by furnishing student referees and training city league cheerleaders. It sponsored a concession stand at the Junior Varsity football games; it also furnished time keepers for basketball season. Students taking part in these activities received points, and the point system was used in the awarding of Eagle jackets.

The Monogram Club also sponsored the Homecoming Dance.

Listen! Here comes the G. C. H. S. Band! The sound of a whistle is heard. There they are! The whistle was that of Miss Peggy Lucas who is the drum majorette this year. She is followed by the head majorette and her six marching, twirling majorettes. How gracefully they prance with their new lighted batons! Yes, and here, now, is the rest of the band dressed in their orange and black uniforms. Each person is intent on playing his instrument and keeping in line. The music sounds just beautiful.

This was the scene in Petersburg, Virginia and Weldon, N. C. this Christmas. These were two of the many things the band has participated in this year. The trip to Charlottesville to the Annual Band Day was very exciting and proved to be a big success.

Mrs. Moseley is the band director.

Football season is an important one for any band. This goes for ours, too. The band, under the leadership of the director, Mrs. Bette Moseley, had many different and interesting routines which were presented at half time at each game. A special lighted and fire baton act was given for Homecoming.

There are many plans for the future. There is the spring concert in May, and perhaps there will be another trip this year to the Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester.

With the support of the "Band Boosters" and all those who appreciate band music, the band hopes to continue doing its best to bring the people of Greenville County good band music for parades, concerts, athletic events and community affairs.

Rus Cato is the captain of the band.

The majorettes in the Greenville County High School Band are Linda Slate, serving as a majorette for the third year; Dianne Newsome, Mary Jane Mills, Mary Lou Harris, and Jeanne Riggan, new majorettes this year.
